<What is TISA?> ----- Tokyo Tech International Student Association

TISA is the group that connects all international students and works to enhance this multicultural experience at Tokyo Tech.

Major event

There are many activities that welcome new international students after they arrive in Tokyo and are confused about life in Japan. At the beginning of first and third quarters, TISA members usually introduce relevant activities and services to newcomers during the new international student orientation.

Here we are going to introduce some of our awesome events:

① Welcome party

International Welcome Party

Newcomers can meet other new students, current students, staff, and alumni. These events feature many cultural performances, food, prizes, and activities from many different cultures. (Past International Welcome Parties have had over 200 attendees and featured over 40 performers.)

② Let's go global

The cultural identity of each international student is the foundation of the cultural diversity in Tokyo Tech and it must be protected. TISA organizes “Let’s Go Global: Natives”, a weekly activity that is held at lunchtime in the HUB-International Communication Space (HUB-ICS). Every week, an international student becomes an ambassador of their country and reconnects to their culture by giving presentations about life in their country.

③ International sports festival

Interaction over games.

Students enjoyed football, basketball, table tennis and badminton. Many students from various countries enjoyed the event in great weather. At the end of the festival, an award ceremony for each sport was held and the event ended with a friendly atmosphere.

④ Collaborative events with other clubs

The Japanese Exchange (JEx) committee of TISA teams up with other Tokyo Tech clubs to provide international students with a unique opportunity to experience the traditional Japanese culture, or enjoy sports with Japanese students.

<What TISA do for you>

● Uniting students

As a whole, TISA serves as the union of all international students in Tokyo Tech.

● Networking and building friendships

TISA events generally allow students to freely connect, make new friendships, and enjoy their lives in Tokyo Tech. These activities promote interaction over performances, such as the welcome party; interaction over culture, such as Secret Santa and Let's Go Global: Natives; and interaction over games, such as the International Sports Festival; interaction over food, such as the BBQ, Beach Picnic, and Bento Parties.

● Feedback from TISA members:

Sara (Egypt):

What does TISA mean to me? When I first came to Tokyo, I didn't know anything or anyone, I was completely lost! And from the first day on campus, TISA was my guidance through my life here, with continued support, helpful advice and friendly community. TISA gave me the opportunity to meet a lot of amazing people whom I wouldn't have met any other way, amazing people who are now some of my closest friends! For me, TISA is my family in Tokyo Tech, it's where I go to when I need help, support or just a friendly ear....

Laras (Indonesia):

TISA has a lot of great events every year which help to connect people especially international students (Japanese students too). I love coming to TISA's events because they help me to meet new friends from all over the world. I would definitely recommend international students to come to TISA's events.
